

Working Families CAN'T AFFORD TERRY BRANSTAD

Cutting Taxes for Corporations, Not Families. As governor, Branstad increased the sales tax for working families. Now he wants to cut taxes for corporations, which could lead to cuts in vital services. (Sioux City Journal, 4/7/10; Candidate website, accessed 7/02/10)

Opposing Working Family Priorities. If he's elected, Branstad says pro-worker legislation—including the prevailing wage, choice of doctor, open-scope bargaining and fair share—will be “dead on arrival.” (The Iowa Independent, 6/10/10)

Cutting Jobs and Vital Services. Branstad brags about his previous record of “cutting out half the state agencies.” He promises to cut the size of government by 15 percent, jeopardizing jobs and vital services. (Des Moines Register, 5/10/10; The Ottumwa Courier, 6/11/10)
